

KIM FISHER

SELECTED PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Principal

1/01–present

Square Water Inc., Long Island City, NY

Co-founded web development and graphic design company. Direct all technical and infrastructural aspects of company operations. Perform web development, oversee project management and subcontractors, and maintain hosting and domain registration. For portfolio see <http://www.squarewater.com>.

- Client-side: HTML/DHTML, Flash/ActionScript, JavaScript/AJAX
- Server-side: PHP, ASP.NET, CRON jobs
- Database: MySQL, MS SQL Server, Oracle, Access, supporting utilities
- GIS: ArcGIS, Google Earth
- Project management: MS SharePoint, BaseCamp
- Version control: Subversion, TortoiseSVN, BeyondCompare
- Supporting: Adobe CS2, Macromedia suite, MS Office, Linux/Windows command-line tools, PuTTY/SSH, Entunnel

Visiting professor, “Technology for Writers” course

9/99–12/00

Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, NY

- Conceived, designed, and taught curriculum for new undergraduate creative writing major foundation course.
- Guided students’ development of a literary ezine as a way to teach HTML, web page design, associated FTP, graphics, and animation software, and real-world web design roles and responsibilities.
- Expanded students’ range of creative written expression by introducing them to the current state of the art of hypertext and helping them to write their own hypertexts.

Software testing specialist and electronic production operator

10/95–5/97

Research Institute of America Group, New York, NY

- Planned and tested CD-ROM installation and maintenance software.
- Produced numerous monthly CD-ROM editions of tax law publications using SGML, coordinated data source delivery and production scheduling, and managed implementation of third-party electronic tax forms software.

EDUCATION

B.A. in anthropology

1994

Reed College, Portland, OR

- Thesis: Love and Social Change in Heian Japan: An Anthropological Perspective.
- Commendations for excellence, 1992–93 and 1993–94.

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

International and Outdoors

- Born in Nepal, and lived there at different times for a total of over three years.
- Traveled and trekked extensively in over forty countries.
- Climbed numerous peaks, including Mera (21,500’) in Nepal, Aconcagua (22,850’) in Argentina, and Denali (20,320’) in Alaska.